FAMILIAR LINES.

The boy stood on the burning deck.
His fleece was white as snow;
He stuck a feather in his hat,
John Anderson, my Jo!

"Come back, come back!" he cried in grief,
From India's coral strands,
The frost is on the pumpkin and
The village smithy stands.

Am I a soldier of the cross
From many a boundless plain?
Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
Where saints immortal reign?

Ye banks and braes o' bonny Doon
Across the sands o' Dee,
Can ye forget that night in June—
My country, 'tis of thee!

Of all sad words of tongue or pen,
We're saddest when we slay,
To beard the lion in his den—
To set before the King.

Hark! from the tombs a doleful sound,
And Phobus' glins arise;
All mimsy were the borogroves
To mansions in the skies.

—Cleveland Leader

THE LEDGER delights in obliging its friends. It prints "Help Wanted," "Situations Wanted," "Lost" and "Found" notices free of charge; and as it costs you nothing for such service, don't you think it is as little as you can do to write the copy and either bring or send it to the office?

If you have an item of news, please call up The Ledger, Telephone 33, and let us have it.

GETTING THERE

A Maysville Man's Success in Far Away California

A Maysvillian sojourning in Los Angeles, California, in writing to a friend in this city, among other interesting things speaks in eulogistic terms of a native of Maysville who has forged to the front and is now one of the most prominent citizens of Los Angeles.

The gentleman referred to is Hon. W. B. Mathews, Jr., brother of Postmaster Clarence Mathews of this city.

Mr. Mathews is now City Attorney of Los Angeles, and the able manner in which he has looked after the city's interest has been the means of attracting the attention of men of affairs to his fitness for higher things, and the papers are booming him for a seat in Congress. The Maysville man is always to the front wherever he may be found.

WILL PREACH TONIGHT

Market Square to Be Enlivened By a Colored Evangelist

Rev. Henry Groves, a colored Evangelist of the Missionary Baptist Church, will hold services tonight on Market Square, beginning at 7 o'clock.

This reverend gentleman has quite an interesting piece of history connected with his brief term in the Ministry.

He was born and raised at Henderson, and is a coal miner by profession.

While at work in the mines at Empire, Ky., the spirit called him to go forth and preach.

That was on the 28th day of last March.

He started on his preaching tour on the 25th of April, since which time he has walked over 1,300 miles, and has not missed a single day in preaching.

He came here last night from Portsmouth, where he has been the past five weeks.

The state convention of the Daughters of the Confederacy will be held at Bowling Green October 26th and 27th.

"THE FORTUNE TELLER."

Some idea of the magnitude of the production of "The Fortune Teller" can be gathered from the fact that there are no less than twenty-three changes of costume for the chorus. "The Fortune Teller" tells a most amusing story, and the music, by Victor Herbert, America's most popular composer, is most melodious. Messrs. Aborn are reported to have got together a company which does full justice to Mr. Herbert's splendid score and Mr. Smith's excellent comedy. The organization is a large one, made up of artists of known ability and reputation, said to be not only one of the strongest singing shows of the season, but a veritable beauty display as well.

Our Showing of Women's Suits

The great majority of women who buy Tailored Suits want to pay from $12½ to $25. It is just within these price limits that we have made especial efforts—and succeeded—in providing a rich assortment. Not in materials only but in designs, is the selection very broad. There are Coats in all lengths from 24 to 48 inches, with and without vests, rolling or flat collars, braid, velvet, button or strap trimmed, and so on in variety. And Skirts of equal variety and style. We append a few descriptions to illustrate the point—

At $12½—Tweed and mixtures in brown, blue, black, long tight fitting coats nicely tailored, neatly finished skirts.

At $15—Tweed and cheviot, double and single breasted coats, plaited skirts.

At $17.50—Tweed, cheviot, Panama, three-quarter length coats, gored plaited skirts.

At $22½—Cheviot, tweed, broadcloth, in six styles, coats with skirts, each gore finished with inverted plaits.

At $25—Broadcloth and English cheviot, black, brown, green, gray, navy, prune, and as broad an assortment in designs as in colors.

At $30—Broadcloth with long coats, lined throughout with Skinner's satin—the lining that wears well.

At $35—Exquisitely tailored broadcloth Suits, long coats, tucked or plain, with rolling, flat or inlaid collar and plaited skirts.

ALTERATIONS FREE. FIT GUARANTEED.

"When I say a square deal, I mean a square deal; exactly as much a square deal for the rich man as for the poor man; but no more. Let each stand on his merits, receive what is due him, and be judged according to his deserts. To more he is not entitled, and less he shall not have."—President Roosevelt.

An author who knows what he is talking about says of the drinking business—

"More insanity is caused by drinking than by anything else, and slow, steady drinking causes more of it than getting drunk and letting drink alone between times."

The entries have closed and the racers will be quite busy from now until the close of the polls on November 7th. But what a lot of disappointed fellows there will be, both in the county and the city.

REAL ESTATE DEALER

MR. PATTISON, who now thinks he is running for Governor of Ohio, will find out, the first Wednesday after the first Tuesday in November, that he had only been crawling.

HON. HENRY WATTERSON, Editor of The Courier-Journal, in a lengthy editorial inspired by the present tour of President ROOSEVELT in the South, makes use of this ringing and, for a Democratic paper, significant utterance, referring to the speech made at the statue of STONEWALL JACKSON—

"In breadth of patriotic spirit and in far-reaching statesmanlike suggestion, nothing finer than this was said by ABRAHAM LINCOLN. It deserves, indeed, to be recorded in letters of gold alongside the Gettysburg speech, being at once an echo and confirmation of that immortal utterance. Breathing such sentiments, bearing such a message, THEODORE ROOSEVELT becomes one of us, which is only to say that we are all, all Americans, equally proud of a common country, equal heirs of its sublime traditions, nor less loyal to the Flag of the Union because we followed the flag of the Confederacy."

"The South has wandered forty years through a wilderness of sectionalism for this vision of the promised land of perfect Nationality. It has longed for some Messiah of patriotism and brotherhood to rise in the North and to reach out to it the hand of equality, having fought him like a man the South sends the memory of all frictions to the rear, and greets and acclaims him as a kinsman. Though we differ tomorrow never shall there be from us acerbity of thought or speech. Today, at least, shall be given to the love of God, to the fellowship of manhood and to the unity and glory of our country. Let mean and paltry bigots, let glum-faced partyism for a moment stand aside. Room, room, alone, whilst the President passes through 'the states lately in rebellion' for the grandeur of the Nation and the majesty of the people."

Political Pickings

HIGH-MINDED ARGUMENTS.

Cynthiana Democrat.

The Richmond Register and The Owingsville Outlook, both advocating a return to the viva voce system of voting, differ in regard to an important matter. The Register charges that the candidate who buys votes cannot have them delivered under the present system, which is, of course, an outrage; The Outlook maintains that not a purchased vote in a thousand fails to be cast the way it is bought, which, of course, is perfectly delightful. But, as the chief argument advanced against the secret ballot is that the politicians cannot know how each man votes, which is none of the politicians' business, we trust The Register and The Outlook will submit their differences to arbitration rather than risk a panic in the vote market.

MISTAKES

Are frequently far reaching, and universally so when one buys any article other than the very best in the way of supplies for the table. The country is full of stale, inferior and poisonous stuff, which is every day being palmed off on an unsuspecting public for good and wholesome foods. Because of this the straightforward, honorable and conscientious dealers throughout the country are united in an effort to induce Congress to pass a universal pure food law, which will prohibit the manufacture and sale of impure and poisonous foods, such as are now being sold by unscrupulous dealers, and consequently drive out of business all the "clean job" concerns that deal only in such stuff. I began business in Maysville over twenty-five years ago determined to only handle the best, act honorably with my customers and never misrepresent anything to make a sale. Whatever of success I have had with you I attribute to at all times standing by that determination. My experience of more than forty years in the business has qualified me to know the good from the bad when making my purchases, and has also satisfied me the true road to success is to deal fairly and honorably with the public, sell the best goods at fair prices and never practice deception to make a sale.

I am now getting in my larger purchases for the fall and winter trade and I do not hesitate to say that when all in and opened up I shall have the largest, cleanest, most varied stock of high grade goods ever offered in our city. My stock of Canned Goods and Fancy Groceries of all kinds will be immense, bought at the lowest prices any jobber can buy them, very much lower than such goods can be bought at today, consequently I shall be prepared to meet any and all competition. My special brands of Red Tanned Hams and Breakfast Bacon and fine Leaf Lard are becoming more popular each day with those who only want the very best.

Perfection Flour is the leading flour and the sales are increasing rapidly because it has been proved to be the best and purest sold in this market: always reliable. I don't have to be continually changing to find something better. It is truly what the word implies—Perfection.

In fine Blended Coffees I have the run, because I sell only the best at reasonable prices, always fresh, still going at 15c, 20c and 25c. I want every person to visit my store, and a special invitation is extended to country people when in our city to make my house their headquarters. You are always welcome, and it will be the old-fashioned Kentucky kind. I pay cash for Butter, Eggs, Poultry and Country Produce such as I need in my trade, but will only buy the very best. If I please you I want you to be sure and tell all your neighbors and friends. If anything wrong, come direct to me, and don't mention it to any one else; I make everything right.

WHY HE NAMED THEM

A Farmer Boy Satisfies the Curiosity of the Preacher

A boy plowing was overheard by a Preacher calling his four-ox team—

"Whoa, Presbyterian; haw, Campbellite; gee, Baptist; git up, Methodist."

Upon being interrogated by his hearer for his reason for naming the oxen such, he replied that "Presbyterian" was a true blue, "Baptist" wanted to lick 'em all, "Methodist" could always be counted on, while "Campbellite" was hell for water, and that was all.

SEASONABLE GREETINGS

Candidates Besieged on Every Hand by Unscrupulous Voters

"Hey, hello, say there," but the candidate, seemingly unconscious of being addressed, continued his way across Second street to avoid the importunities of a colored sovereign who was persistently pursuing him in quest of a dime for a drink.

"I say, old man," he continued, "you will not be so hard on hearing on election day; it will be my turn then to give you the frozen stare."

The woods are full of such colts, and it would not be a bad idea to run them all in until after the election.

They are no respecter of person, but the private citizen as well as the candidate is considered legitimate prey in his hunt for the nimble nickel with which to rush the growler.

THE COMPANION AS A CHRISTMAS GIFT.

Can you think of a gift more certain to be acceptable than a year's subscription to The Youth's Companion? Is there any one, young or old, who, having once had the paper in his hands and looked through it, did not wish to possess it for his very own? It is a gift which, far from losing its freshness as Christmas recedes into the past, grows more delightful, more necessary to one's enjoyment week by week.

The boy likes it, for it reflects in its pages every boyish taste and every fine boyish aspiration. The father likes it, not only for its fiction but for its fund of information of the practical sort. The girl likes it for the stories, anecdotes, sketches and editorial articles printed in each number especially for her. The mother likes it for its stories of domestic life and family affection, for its children's page and for its medical advice.

On receipt of $1.75, the yearly subscription price, the publishers send to the new subscriber all the remaining issues of The Companion for 1905 and the "Minutemen" Calendar for 1906, lithographed in twelve colors and gold.

Great Sacrifice Sale
on Wallpaper

For ten days only, beginning September 18th. Cut prices rule us now in order to make room for my spring stock of Wallpaper. We ask you to consider this ad. as addressed to you personally. Don't say "Oh, it's just an advertisement." It's more than an advertisement; it's the news, and the best money-saving news that you'll find in the papers today, and it should prove of intense interest to all who are in need of wallpaper.

WILL YOU HELP?

A Worthy Young Lad Wants to Buy
an Artificial Limb

Master John D. Becraft, a sprightly lad of Aberdeen, lost his right leg by bloodpoison some time ago, and is now trying to secure enough money to buy an artificial one.

He is a manly little fellow, worthy of assistance, and his appeal should meet hearty response. A trifle from each will accomplish the result.

Donations may be left at The Ledger Office, and all sums, however small, will be gratefully accepted.

To date these amounts have been received—

Stand the Cold Off

The largest, most varied and most satisfied line of ROBES and BLANKETS ever shown in this section is awaiting your inspection at our Repository. The showing includes the newest and latest designs, ranging from the common sort to the finest products of the loom. They are going like circus tickets since we first put them on display. And no wonder. They run away from anything we have ever seen since we began business, and are priced surprisingly low. We never had a better line; you never had a better opportunity. Call today.

Last of the C. and O. Cincinnati Sunday Excursions

Will run on Sunday, October 29th. These excursions will be discontinued after October 29th.

Very Low One Way Settlers' Rates to the West, Northwest and Southwest.

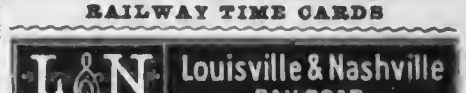

Be sure you are right and see that your ticket reads via the Big Four Route. Three-day fares, morning, noon, night. Miles shortest. Hours quickest.

Very low one way Colonists' tickets on sale daily September 15th to October 31st to points in Washington, Oregon, Montana, Utah, British Columbia and California. Also homeseekers' round-trip tickets to the West and Southwest every first and third Tuesday until December.

If you are contemplating a trip soon to any point in the West, you will find that it will be to your interest to write to the undersigned stating fully your point of destination, your nearest railroad station, the number in your party and the date you wish to start. He will give you full information, the exact cost of your trip, or if you so desire, will call on you in person and explain everything fully to you. A letter addressed to him, giving the information, may be the means of saving you several dollars. R. C. Kennedy, South-eastern Passenger Agent Big Four Route, Huntington, W. Va.

Correspondence

FEARIS.

Commissioners are trying to put our roads in repair.

Miss Flora B. Cole went to Hartford City, Ind., Monday.

Farmers are gathering corn and some are stripping tobacco.

Isaac G. Middleton of Assumption, Ill., returned home Monday after a three weeks visit to his sister, Mrs. Jessie Marshall of this place.

Dr. Bowman and Colonel C. C. Degman of Croxton Post attended the annual reunion of the Seventieth O. V. V. I. at Fincastle, O., last Thursday and Friday.

The protracted meeting at the Bethany Christian Church is still in progress with some good results in the way of turning people to God. May the good work go on in all the Churches and finally strike this place and try to reform people who attend to everybody's business but their own.

A. S. Cole returned from Dayton, O., Friday, where he attended the fortieth annual reunion of the Thirty-fourth Ohio Volunteers. He reported one hundred and eleven present for rollcall. Several have died since last meeting, including the Regimental Chaplain, George W. Collier, Major U. S. A., retired. Dayton was named for the next meeting and the latter part of September as the date.

ORANGEBURG.

Miss Nannie Kennan entertained a few friends at dinner Sunday.

Miss Eva Willet is making a protracted visit with friends in Fleming county.

L. M. Collis has sold his farm to Charles DeVauxh: consideration, $2,500.

O. B. Mayhugh has purchased that portion of the Roe farm lying on the Mt. Carmel pike.

Our Public School is closed because of the prevalence of mumps and diphtheria in the district.

Mrs. James Roe and little daughter and Mrs. Charles Pollard visited the family of S. E. Talley of Mt. Carmel Saturday.

Mrs. Susan Tolle, who has been making her home with her brother, R. P. Tolle, of this place, has removed to Lewis county.

The Redmen are converting the property recently purchased from Mrs. E. Roe into a hall, for the accommodation of their Order. Consequently, the air is vocal, night and day with sounds of the hammer and saw.

SALEM.

Arthur Henson of Minerva called on friends here Thursday.

Freid Maul and family of Ohio are the guests of William Faul.

James F. Hill and wife were the guests of Arthur Henson of Minerva Sunday.

A. P. Hill of Shannon was the guest of his mother, Mrs. Emily Hill, Wednesday.

Mrs. Mary L. Henson visited relatives here last week and attended the meeting.

Miss Malinda Jolly of near Bridgeville was the guest of Miss Bettie Stiles last week.

Mrs. Mary Woodward of near Tangletown visited friends here several days last week.

Miss Amanda Hill of Fleming county is the pleasant guest of her sister, Mrs. Annie Hill.

Rev. Pollitt and Rev. Kidwell are holding a series of meetings at the M. E. Church, South.

Robert Hill and wife have returned home, after a pleasant visit to her parents in Fleming county.

Mrs. Jona Hicks and family have been the guests of Mrs. Alfred Hicks of Nepton for several days.

Miss Florence Bostain and Mr. James W. Parker will wed at Carlisle November 15th.

Peru and Bolivia have the richest silver mines in the world, there having been taken over $650,000,000 from the Potosi mines in Bolivia alone.

It is an interesting scientific fact that nothing that falls from the mouth of the deepest mining shaft in the world ever reaches the bottom. This has been demonstrated at the famous Red Jacket shaft of the Big Calumet and flecla copper mine. The article, no matter what shape or size, is invariably found clinging to the East side of the shaft. Members of the Faculty of the College of Mines are now engaged in experiments with a view of developing data as to the thickness of the earth's crust. It is not hoped to solve the perplexing problem.

RIGHT SMART ORDER

Pennsylvania Railroad Wants a Few Engines and Cars

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company will spend over $26,000,000 for locomotives and freight cars for its lines East and West of Pittsburgh.

There will be at least 500 new locomotives built for delivery next year. One-half of this number will be constructed by the Baldwin Locomotive Works, and the other 250 at the Company's shops at Altoona. These engines will take the place of locomotives that have been relegated to the scrap heap or have otherwise been disposed of.

Besides this there are to be built 15,000 more freight cars, with a capacity of 100,000 pounds each. This in addition to the order for 16,300 freight cars, which was placed a few weeks ago. All these cars will be delivered next year.

When the new order is placed the Pennsylvania system will have under way 31,300 cars. This is the largest order ever given by a railroad for cars. The different car manufacturing companies have been asked to submit bids, and it is expected that within a few days the order will be placed. Each freight car will cost about $1,150 and each large freight locomotive about $18,000.

It is estimated by the transportation officers that if the Company had enough cars to meet the traffic demands at present more than the cost of the cars would be earned within a short time.
